

Please dont take away the peace that has come to my house since I subscribed to the Wisconsin Do Not call list. We rarely have a telemarketer call anymore and it is so nice especially since my evenings are for spending time with my family. I get enough junk through the mail these days and dont want the calls to start again. 80% of Wisconsin residents belong to the WI Do Not call list. That has to show how valuable it is to WI residents.